When you come into a new country there are allowances you are entitled to that are paid by the Australian Government. Things like child endowment, where the Government pays you a regular sum for every child you have. And there are also benefits like sickness and unemployment benefits, and pensions for the widowed and aged.

STATION: 2CH SYDNEY ADVERTISER: A.N.Z. BANK LIMITED.

These things are often never fully explained to you, and you could actually be missing out on a social service benefit that you are entitled to.
