Dear Sir,

As a teacher of Italian language at Ashfield Evening College for the past four years, I have been asked repeatedly by my students to arrange a Television Course, for the many people interested who cannot attend these Classes.

Among my pupils have been University Students, Doctors, Accountants, Lawyers, Chemist, Business Man and Teachers, all of whom have found a knowledge of Italian urgently necessary for the conduct of their business affairs, as well as a source of great interest and entertainment.

I have my diploma in education and have graduated in languages from the University of Venice. If necessary I could also conduct courses in French and Spanish.

For several years I have organized a very successful Radio-Programme in Italian at Station 2CH. At the present time I am presenting "MUSICHERE ITALIANO" on Monday nights from 8 to 9,15 and "ARRIVEDERCI ROMA" on Tuesday nights from 6,45 to 8 p.m. I am also a journalist on the staff of the most widely circulating Italian newspaper in Australia LA FIAMMA and have become very well known in all parts of Australia because of my work in handling Migrants' personal problems through the correspondence columns of the paper.

So I feel sure that many of my Australian and Italian friends would be very interested in a programme in Italian if this could be arranged.

I would be grateful for the opportunity of an interview to discuss this matter further,

Yours faithfully

Lena Gustin
