Dear Mr Gustin

Malcolm Bodley, our Public Information Officer, has shown me the copy of your book 70 anni di Ricordi in due mondi which you handed him last Sunday. It is a very interesting publication, and we are delighted to have it for the National Library's collections. I very much appreciate your thoughtfulness in bringing the copy to Canberra.

I was personally very interested to see the souvenir catalogue of the launching of the Small Museum of Italians in Australia at the APIA Club on 6 May. Prior to 1981 I lived in Sydney, and spent many happy hours in the APIA Club with Italian friends. Your wife must take pride in your having prepared the tribute to her work in the community.

With warm regards,

Yours sincerely

W.M. Horton
Director-General
