

Community News

Bankstown's Lena and Dino Gustin celebrated their 60th anniversary on December 27. Lena, who is affectionately known as Mamma Lena, is a well-known identity within the Italian community, especially for her radio programs which assisted newly arrived Italian migrants. On their diamond anniversary, the couple received congratulations from Queen Elizabeth; Prime Minister John Howard; NSW Premier, Bob Carr; and Bankstown Mayor, Kevin Hill.

