

Bankstown's best known social worker for the Italian community, Mamma Lena, recently celebrated her 80th birthday. A former radio announcer who has lived in Bankstown for 40 years, Mamma Lena has received countless service awards for helping thousands of migrants settle into their new country. Distinguished guests attended a party, where all proceeds went to the Italian-based Apia Club.