

APRIL-JUNE 1987

Association Lombard League

The Association Lombard League in Australia (l'Associazione lega Lombardi), had a recent get together in the auditorium of the Apia Club.

Amongst some of the invited guests during this dinner/dance night were:

Mr. Peter Baldwin representing the Prime Minister, Mrs. Franca Arena representing the premier of New South Wales, Mr. Paul Zammit representing the leader of the State Opposition Mr. Nick Greiner, The Italian Consul General Dott. Guido Scalici, The Archbishop A.Dion spiritual father of this association.

Present were also representatives from various sections of the Lombard's League, Newcastle and Wollongong branches.

During the night the president of the above league Mrs. Maria Rosa Cerizza gave every one the warm welcome, and in her speech said that although the Lombards are a very small/minute section of the Italian community here in Sydney, never the less they seem to have done more than their share just as any others of the ethnic community of which are well proud of.

Mrs. Cerizza was then presented with a gold medal by her own committee in appreciation for her active part and to services rendered by her to the lombard community here in Australia.

