

Family Homes

- The Family Homes are special type of family where fathers and mothers take care of their natural sons and the less fortunate, lonely and abandoned ones.
- The relationship formed within a Family Home are genuine, generated by a giving and selfless love that fulfills the vital need to feel loved, valued and important.

